

ODE TO PIZZA
A Shakespearean Sonnet
By Daniel Berenson
Freaky Dude Books
(All rights reserved)

My love for pizza be an awesome thing;
It guides my life from morning to the eve;
I shout thy praises; Oh, to thee I sing,
I duly swear thy side I'll never leave.

I worship thy delish ingredients;
The cheese, the 'shrooms, the beef, and much much more;
A day without thee causeth me to wince;
A lack of thee doth make my belly sore.

This shan't go on; I dare not stay the same;
You must believe me, Mom. It always shows;
If I don't move, I fear I'll go insane;
I'm leaving, Mom, to live at Domino's.

Don't weep. You'll always know where 'tis I'll be Till Papa John's gives me the same for free.